

“honouring the circle of life”

Everyone’s legacy can be connected to trees. Whether it’s an Evergreen Magnolia or River Red Gum, select a tree that suits you.

Introduction Legacy Pathways

The cremated remains of a precious life can now be used to create new life with a world first organic natural science that turns the remains into micronutrients that become a part of the tree and help it grow.

Regardless of whether you choose to be buried, scattered or have your cremated remains directly infused into a tree, Living Legacy Forest offers a variety of pathways to change the way we leave the world we leave behind.

Your legacy can be customised the way you want, in the place you want and in a way that truly reflects your individuality. Your cremated remains can even be arranged into multiple trees and locations amongst family members.

All Living Legacy Forest Pathways are available in eighteen locations in Melbourne, via The Greater Metropolitan Cemeteries Trust. (Subject to approval) Book a free consultation with a certified horticulturists 1300 022 298

Holistic Legacy (Suits cremated remains)

“I want to be a tree that continues to breathe”

A world first, Living Legacy Forest Trees connect a person’s remains to the life of a tree by transforming cremated remains into a micro-nutrient form of energy absorbed directly into the tree roots that helps the tree to thrive.

Collective Legacy (Suits burial or scattering)

“Connect the place of memorial to a family, friends and forest”

Share the synergy of life and nature by connecting your memory to the lasting impact of your own 200 tree Legacy Forest Footprint on the world. Why 200 trees? Because 200 trees replaces more carbon than a human breathes in their lifetime and creates the air we breathe.

Holistic Legacy

(suitable for cremation)

Your legacy can make a difference to people, place and planet

Your Infused Holistic Legacy Tree

Using our LL.Tribute Technology, we respectfully transform cremated remains into micronutrients using natural science, essentially bringing your ashes back to life so they can be absorbed via the tree roots, creating a unique and meaningful living memorial tree.

200 Tree Forest Footprint planted in your honour

Your legacy is a positive contribution to people place and planet. Via our partners we plant 200 additional trees locally and abroad, creating more air than a human breathes in a lifetime. Ten of the trees are planted locally across the East Coast of Australia with Greenfleet (during the winter months only) and 190 of the trees are planted abroad (all year round) in locations severely affected by deforestation and loss of threatened species.

Mobile App Connectivity Living Legacy | GenConnect

Share stories for generational connectivity via the LL.GenConnect Mobile Application, which allows you to digitally locate your Living Legacy Forest Memorial tree, and connect family and friends online presence in one location, so your Legacy lives on.
